

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Katherine An

katherine@allisonpr.com

(619) 533-7981

“Best of the Northwest” Invites Travelers to Experience the Ultimate Olympic National Park and Forest Getaway

Travelers Can Combine Up to Four Unique Destinations into One Vacation

OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK, WASH. – March 15, 2010 – ARAMARK Parks and Destinations (APD) announces a new lodging package that invites guests to create their own experience by combining up to four unique destinations into one vacation at Olympic National Park and Forest. The “Best of the Northwest” package features a minimum three-night stay in any combination at any of the four lodges: Lake Quinault Lodge, Kalaloch Lodge, Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort and APD’s newest location, Lake Crescent Lodge.

With an average savings of up to 35 percent, the three-night package is priced at $399 and includes a $40 resort credit per night that can be used towards meals and/or activities at the lodges. If three nights are not enough to absorb the experience, guests can extend their stay at a discounted price of $99 for additional nights. Upgraded rooms are also available at $20 additional per night. The “Best of the Northwest” package is available March 26 – June 15, 2010. Lake Crescent Lodge opens May 7 and is available for stays on this package May 7 – June 15.

The diverse landscape of the Pacific Northwest offers visitors a wide range of activities. Guests can hike through the Pandora-like emerald rainforest at Lake Quinault Lodge or explore the miles of sandy beaches, tracing the steps of Edward and Bella of the fantasy phenomenon Twilight at Kalaloch Lodge. Hikers can soak in rejuvenating outdoor pure mineral water hot pools at Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort or rest peacefully amongst the towering pines along the quiet shores of the charming Lake Crescent Lodge.

In addition, the unique climate on the Olympic Peninsula, with ideal conditions for growing mushrooms and harvesting razor clams, makes the region the home of what some would consider the most flavorful culinary wonders in the U.S.

“For the past three years the ‘Trio of Treasures’ package offered at Lake Quinault Lodge, Kalaloch Lodge and Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort has been the most popular package among our guests and visitors, as it encompassed a full assortment of experiences in the Pacific Northwest. With the recent addition of Lake Crescent Lodge, we can now truly offer the ‘Best of the Northwest’ through not just distinctly unique landscapes at each destination, but also a wide array of culinary delights and outdoor activities to choose from,” said Amanda Lovelady, resident district manager, ARAMARK, Olympic Peninsula.

For more information on the “Best of the Northwest” package and all four properties, please visit www.visitwashingtonparks.com or call (866) 297-7367.

Disclaimer: Package valid March 26 through June 15, 2010. Lake Crescent Lodge is only available as part of the Best Of The Northwest package for stays between May 7 - June 15, 2010. Excludes holiday periods. Some blackout dates apply. Package rate based on standard room and double occupancy. Resort credit not available beyond three-night stay. Extra person and pet fees apply. Must stay a minimum of three nights. Resorts may be visited in any order. Package only available by calling 866-297-7367. Not available for online booking.*

###

About ARAMARK Parks and Destinations

ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, a division of ARAMARK, delivers authentic and memorable experiences at national and state parks, national forests, specialty hotels, museums, and other tourist destinations throughout the United States. In partnership with its clients, ARAMARK Parks and Destinations seeks to enhance the guest experience by offering industry-leading hospitality, environmental stewardship, recreational, and interpretive programs. For more information on ARAMARK Parks and Destinations and each of its properties, visit www.aramarkparksanddestinations.com.

About Lake Quinault Lodge

Built in 1926 on the shores of Lake Quinault, within the heart of one of only three temperate rain forests in the world, Lake Quinault Lodge is a rustic, historic retreat in the Pacific Northwest. With access to more than 250 miles of hiking trails in the Quinault Valley – 15 miles of which are within walking distance of the lodge – Lake Quinault Lodge is the perfect starting point for exploring the emerald green forests and surrounding wildlife on and around the lake. Lake Quinault Lodge, managed by ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, operates under special permit by the U.S. Forest Service in Olympic National Forest.

About Kalaloch Lodge

Perched on a vista overlooking the rocky Washington coast, Kalaloch Lodge offers stunning panoramic views and seven unique beaches. Remote and peaceful, the Lodge offers the perfect escape for a romantic getaway or a family vacation for guests looking to fill their days with relaxing activities like beach combing, fishing, hiking and exploring. Kalaloch Lodge is managed by ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, an authorized concessioner of the National Park Service.

About Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort

Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort is located 12 miles within the heart of Olympic National Park. The resort, which includes 32 cabins and 17 RV sites, is surrounded by forested peaks and the babbling Sol Duc River, and features three outdoor pure mineral-water hot pools. With natural mineral water hot springs, old-growth forest, pristine rivers and streams and spectacular mountain scenery, Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort offers activities such as hiking, fishing, local excursions and more. Open March through October annually, the resort's central location offers easy access to visit area attractions like the Hoh Rain Forest, Hurricane Ridge or Victoria, Canada. Sol Duc Hot Springs Resort is managed by ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, an authorized concessioner of the National Park Service.

About Lake Crescent Lodge

Historic Lake Crescent Lodge, built in 1916 as "Singers Tavern" in Olympic National Park, serves as an ideal base camp for the variety of recreational activities in the park while allowing guests to experience the charm of a turn-of-the-century resort. The comfortable, spacious guest rooms are nestled among the giant fir and hemlock trees on the shore of beautiful Lake Crescent and offer wonderful views of the lake. Lake Crescent Lodge is managed by ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, an authorized concessioner of the National Park Service.